

Bob Lane's Andrews 63, Medicine Man, drives out of Long Beach Harbor on way to winning second Random Leg race

Ullman Sails Long Beach Race Week

Long Beach and Alamitos Bay Yacht Clubs
June 25-27, 2010

The West Coast's largest keelboat regatta

June 26, 2010

Saturday's weather: Wind 7-11k S; temp. 71F.

Sunday's forecast: Wind 10 SSW; high temp. 74F.

Farr 40s, Fast 50s have new leaders into final day

LONG BEACH, Calif.

Campaigning for change won the day at Ullman Sails Long Beach Race Week Saturday when two new names stole the spotlight in the marquee classes of the West Coast's largest keelboat regatta,

Jeff Janov of California YC and Ed Feo, a member of both of the hosting Long Beach and Alamitos Bay Yacht Clubs, will lead the Farr 40 and Fast 40 fleets, respectively, into the last two races Sunday after dominating Saturday's three races.

Tricky conditions prevailed. The moderate, shifting breeze from the south stirred few whitecaps, but the racing remained competitive.

Janov's two firsts and three seconds in five races has left everyone except David Voss's notorious Piranha out of the running. While it should be noted that Janov, who has been sailing a Farr 40 only two years, has the regatta title sponsor. Dave Ullman himself. calling tactics ...honest. it's

It's OK (I.) bears down on Peligroso in Fast 50 fleet

Dark Star's afterguard (l-r) Dave Ullman, skipper Jeff Janov and Randy Smith now lead the Farr 40s

